

White Mesa Community BBQ, Film Showing & Update

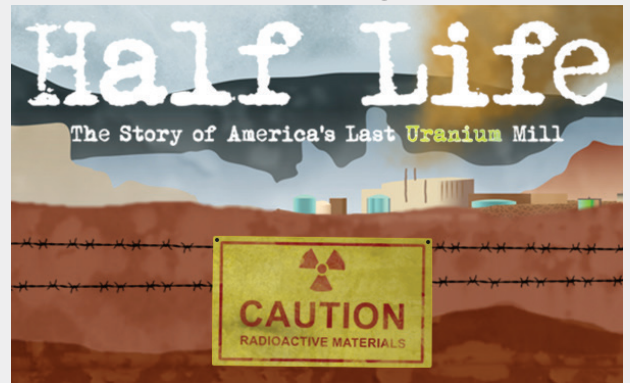

Find out about the uranium mill's threat to our health, water, air, land, and culture

Monday
OCT 3, 6pm

White Mesa Recreation Center

The BBQ dinner starts at 6 pm, and the informational meeting will follow.

Featuring:

A film about the ongoing toxic legacy of the uranium industry in southeastern Utah.

"If contamination did show up in these seeps and springs, these resources would be unusable for the tribe." –Colin Larrick, Water Quality Specialist, Ute Mountain Ute Tribe

Sponsored by the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe and White Mesa Concerned Community

Co-sponsored by the Grand Canyon Trust, Greenaction for Health and Environmental Justice, and Uranium Watch