

White Mesa Ute Community Protest & Spiritual Walk

Protect our community, health, air, land, culture, and sacred sites from the uranium mill

A person with white face paint is riding a brown horse on a gravel path. They are holding a large yellow flag with the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe seal. The seal features a Native American figure and the text 'THE GREAT SEAL OF THE UTE MOUNTAIN UTE TRIBE' and 'TORO, COLO'. In the background, a person in a blue shirt and hat stands in a desert landscape under a cloudy sky.

Saturday MAY 13, 11 am

White Mesa Community Building

Directions: The White Mesa Ute Community is between Bluff and Blanding. The community center is located slightly off Hwy 191, on the west side of the road, behind the Mobil Gas Station. Look for a large red building with "White Mesa Community Center" written in white letters on the side.

Rally starts at 11 am, followed by the spiritual and protest walk to Energy Fuels White Mesa Uranium Mill.

Wear comfortable shoes, and bring plenty of water!

Sponsored by White Mesa Concerned Community

Co-sponsored by Canyon Country Rising Tide, the Grand Canyon Trust, Greenaction for Health and Environmental Justice, Haul No, Living Rivers, and Uranium Watch

For more information, call White Mesa Concerned Community (435) 485-0265